

Trials of the Centuries

List of Possible Suspects

Unit 1:1500-1715    Institutions Challenged Pope Leo X          Niccolo Machiavelli          Martin Luther          Henry VIII          Elizabeth I          Galileo          Louis XIV          Francis Bacon          Catherine the Great          Christopher Columbus          John Locke	Unit 2    1715-1815    Revolutions Napoleon          Louis XVI          Sir Walter Raleigh          The Jesuits          Maximilien Robespierre          Adam Smith          Madame Roland
Unit 3    1815-1914    Birth &amp; Transition Karl Marx          Vladimir Lenin          Charles Darwin          Albert Einstein          Czar Alexander II          Count Otto Von Bismark	Unit 4    1914-    Extremes Hitler          Stalin          Mao Tse-Tung          Hirohito          Mussolini          Tsar Nicholas II          Rasputin          Harry Truman          John F. Kennedy          Virginia Woolf

It is clear from the list above that the curriculum favours a male dominated view of World History. The above list is a sampling of historical figures highlighted in the textbook, if there is someone else that you would like to put on trial please discuss with the Instructor for Approval.

Student Choice: _____