

MUN Resolution Rubric

Categories	Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1
Knowledge/Understanding Covers the key topics important to the issue	Exceptional presentation of the key topics important to the issue	Good presentation of most of the key topics important to the issue	Somewhat presents the key topics important to the issue	Does not adequately present key topics important to the issue
Thinking	Superior use of facts and evidence Excellent use of strategies and cost analysis when suggesting implementation of new programs Mechanisms for ensuring implementation are clear and determine accountability	Some use of facts and evidence Adequate use of strategies and cost analysis for implementation of new programs Mechanisms for ensuring implementation are evident	Little use of facts and evidence Shows some use of strategies and cost analysis for implementing new programs Mechanisms for ensuring implementation are only somewhat evident	Limited use of facts and evidence Does not show use of strategies and cost analysis for implementing new programs Mechanisms for ensuring implementation are clearly evident
Communication Uses the precise structure required in UN resolution submissions	Heading clearly summarizes the issue Structure of resolution follows all UN guidelines	Heading adequately summarizes the issue Structure of resolution follows some UN guidelines	Heading somewhat summarizes the issue Structure of resolution follows few UN guidelines	Heading does not clearly summarize the issue Structure of resolution follows none of the guidelines
Application Is the resolution written in the perspective of your country? Uses Prembulatory/Operative clause language effectively Are the principles used relevant to the sponsor?	Demonstrates superb knowledge about the perspective of the country submitting the resolution Presents an excellent set of clauses that clearly demonstrate an attempt at achieving international consensus	Demonstrates good knowledge about the perspective of the country submitting the resolution Presents a good set of clauses that clearly demonstrate an attempt at achieving international consensus	Demonstrates limited knowledge about the perspective of the country submitting the resolution Presents a set of clauses that somewhat demonstrate an attempt at achieving international consensus	Demonstrates no knowledge about the perspective of the country submitting the resolution Presents a weak set of clauses that unsuccessfully demonstrate an attempt at achieving international consensus