

© Original Artist
Reproduction rights obtainable from www.CartoonStock.com

- Yasser Arafat keeps pushing Israel for more demands
- Israel by giving allows more lenient steps for a piece process

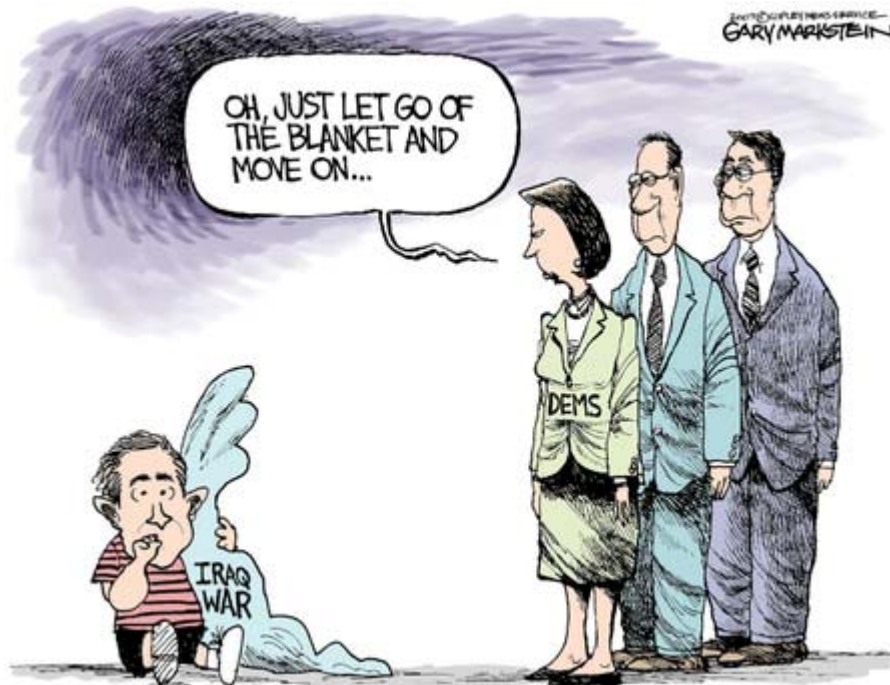

- Nations attempt to coax North Korea into piece with incentives like aid and protection as they do not need the weapons for regime survival.

www.CoxAndForkum.com

The above cartoon reflects upon the dangers of being complacent to Iranian based attacks into Iraq and the consequences of leaving Iran unabated.

The above cartoon displays how the bush administration seems to be clinging to keeping troops in Iraq as a way to ensure middle eastern power. The democrats on the other hand seem to be willing to walk away from the war.

The above cartoon pokes fun at the lesser spending American's must endure as a result of the sub-prime mortgage crisis and shows how it will effect the family as a whole.